Concept Note

The Department of Humanities & Social Sciences, Indian Institute of Information Technology Guwahati invites submissions for its Research Scholars' Conclave 2024. The Research Conclave 2024 aims to provide a platform for scholars, researchers, and early career professionals to explore emerging trends on a diverse range of topics within the realms of humanities and social sciences. The conclave is scheduled from 24th to 25th May 2024. The last date for submission of abstracts/extended abstracts is 15th April, 2024.

The significance of Humanities and Social Sciences persists as we navigate the complexities of the 21st century. The emergence of new technologies, global interconnectivity, and shifting socio-cultural dynamics have spurred the development of innovative approaches and perspectives in the field of humanities and social sciences. Through this conclave, we aim to explore the exciting and transformative emerging trends in this domain, which will contribute significance to the contemporary academic and non-academic sphere. Recognizing the interconnected nature of our world, humanities, and social sciences scholars are increasingly working together in various interdisciplinary fields to address contemporary issues and engage with diverse perspectives. We are looking for papers related to the following broad areas/interdisciplinary scope:

Economics
Entrepreneurship
Finance and Management
Linguistics
Literature
Political Science
